World Food Sunday

Message from Cheryl Stenson, LLWL

I've always been someone who treasures consistency and tradition. In the wake of my husband's passing, that need grew exponentially. For comfort. For safety. St. Bart's has given me the blessing of both those things – by asking me to return so many times and in the familiarity of Sunday greetings. I can only hope that the blessing is reciprocal. God bless you all.

Matthew 5: 38-41

You have heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.' But I say to you: Do not resist an evildoer. But if anyone strikes you on the right cheek, turn the other also, and if anyone wants to sue you and take your shirt, give your coat as well, and if anyone forces you to go one mile, go also the second mile.

If anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to them the other cheek also."

- Matthew 5:39

World Food Sunday—Prayer for Food Security

Creator, conspire with us to create a world where all have access to nutritious and sustainable food sources, and none live with scarcity or food insecurity. Redeemer, save us from oppressive and unjust systems. Mobilize us to be a part of a world response that works in partnership with those of good will to foster equitable resource sharing. Sustainer, cultivate our resilience and expand our imaginations, so that we might continually find new ways to answer the call to end hunger—until all may flourish. Amen.
